While the hunting season in Wisconsin does not close until midnight, twenty-four persons have died as a result of the sport and thirty-one others were seriously injured. One of the pathetic features of the list, is that there are a large number of children among both the dead and the injured.

Of the hunters out, Alfred Bonnell, aged 17 years, was lost in the woods and a two weeks' search followed. Heavy snows fell and friends continued to hunt for him. Search was at last given up. He is supposed to be dead.

One man was killed in his sleep. The members of the party had retired for the night and were awakened by a shot, to find the body of Oscar Schultz, Rhinelander, writhing on the ground. He had been killed by his own gun, which he had left lying on the ground, too close to the campfire.

Two hunters were found dead under circumstances that can not be fully explained.

A total of six persons are known to have been killed through the accidental discharge of their own guns, in most cases being due to carelessness in handling the weapons. Of the remaining hunters who died during the season, four were mistaken for others for deer. Seven others were killed through the accidental discharge of guns in the hands of other hunters, and one man was killed while tearing a brush heap apart and throwing sticks over his shoulder. One of the sticks hit the trigger of his gun and the bullet crashed through his body.

The injured persons may be classified as, hands shot off, nine; feet, legs and hips hit by bullets, eight; otherwise wounded, fourteen; injured by own gun, sixteen, and shot by other hunters, fifteen.

Twenty adults and eleven minors were injured. One of the cases, that of little Lillian Johnson, Superior, aged 8 years, was the work of a hunter who mistook the child, wandering in the woods, for a deer, and shot, before making sure.

Little Girls Are Shot
The first case of killing a human being came from Conders, Wis., where two little girls were out in the woods. One was mistaken by a zealous hunter on the first day of the open season for a deer. She died instantly. The other little girl was hit on the same day under the same circumstances, mistaken for a deer.

Many Licenses Issued
The total number of game licenses issued to hunters for the year ending on Dec. 31, 1910, was: To non-residents to hunt small game, 418; to non-residents to hunt deer, 354; to residents to hunt generally, 115,014.

Total number of licenses issued to date are: To non-residents to hunt small game, 477; to non-residents to hunt deer, 348; to residents to hunt generally, about 90,000. Definite figures on the number of licenses issued to residents can not be secured until all of the counties file reports, which they are required to do at the close of each month.

State Game Warden Skolts has no record of hunting accidents, but said on Wednesday that he believed there were fewer this year than in a previous year.

CANADIAN CHEESE LARGEST

YADON, Wis., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Someone with a penchant for turning into musty agricultural records here has unearthed facts showing that the famous six-ton cheese made by N. Simon of Appleton, Wis., last summer, and which was reported to be the world's largest specimen, is none other than that honor. The evidence shows that J. A. Ruddle of Appleton, Ontario, made a cheese weighing eleven tons in September, 1891, which was exhibited at the Chicago world's fair in 1893. Simon's record holds for the United States as far as known.

DEPUTIES SEARCH FOR MOPE JURORS

Former Governor of California Now Associated with Defense of the McNamara

BRIBE CASE IS NOT SOUND

Rumor that Hidden Interests Seek to Free Men Accused of Dynamiting

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 30.—While deputy sheriffs and court officers scoured the county, serving the fifty members of the twelfth venire called to report Friday morning to complete the jury in the McNamara murder trial, the courthouse and the lawyers' offices were utterly deserted while the attorneys celebrated Thanksgiving.

The case is now decidedly a sensation in the community because of the allegations of bribery and the association with the defense of former governor and minister to Portugal, Henry T. Gage. The latter's standing in the community caused a change in sentiment and it is now generally admitted that behind the present case is much more than appears on the surface. Gage declared today that he is absolutely convinced that the case against Bert Franklin accused of trying to bribe a prospective juror in the McNamara case is not sound. He has not made up his mind whether he will fight the case when the hearing before Magistrate Young begins Monday next or will withhold the defense's side until a trial in the superior court.

The report that certain persons in no way connected with the present defense are concerned in the bribery case is being freely circulated. Fredricks positively refuses to discuss the matter saying he wants to wait until the affair comes out in court. An individual associated with the district attorney's office, however, stated that there is reason to believe that men connected with the fight made in the past to unionize Los Angeles, men who were at first accused of employing James B. McNamara to wreck the Times building might have excellent reason to see that McNamara is not convicted. They suggest that there is a possibility, if McNamara should be convicted, that he might tell all he knows and thus furnish the missing link in the evidence against the men who were accused of complicity by the Times disaster, but against whom Detective Burns and District Attorney Fredricks have been unable to find a scintilla of evidence. It is suggested that possibly these men might try to aid the efforts of the attorneys for the defense without the knowledge by trying to get G. N. Lockwood to qualify. Lockwood is the man to whom Franklin is alleged to have paid $500.

Neither side would discuss the jury. Fredricks insists that all he wants is a grand jury. He says he will get indictments, put them under the seal of the court and wait until the present trial ends before forcing a trial. Attorney Darrow for the defense said he has all the trouble he wants now, without affirming or denying stories coming from the state's attorney.

WAY FREIGHTS ARE ABANDONED TODAY
Milwaukee road employees on the Dubuque, Southern Minnesota and River divisions were given an unusual holiday today by the officials of the road, when the way freights on the three divisions mentioned were abandoned for the day. Local employees declare that this is a new departure for the company. Heretofore the way freights have been run on every holiday as regularly as the passenger trains. On the La Crosse division the way freight was not abandoned. It being practically impossible, owing to the amount of business which is just now being handled over the division. The La Crosse division way freight, however, was three hours late in starting from the yards on the north side this morning.

KING TURKEY

The eagle, typical of war, must give way today to the turkey, so typical of Thanksgiving time. Throughout the past year hundreds of farmers, great and small, have been carefully rearing their stock of turkeys for this one season. It is estimated that over 2,000,000 turkeys will be consumed at a cost of over $5,000,000 on Thanksgiving day. Were it possible to line these turkeys up in one great parade, single file, they would extend from New York to Chicago.

AD WOLGAST ON WAY TO RECOVERY

Lightweight Champion Undergoes Successful Operation for Appendicitis

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 30.—Statements issued at Clara Barton hospital today declared that the lightweight champion Ad Wolgast continued to improve and that a quick recovery from the effects of his operation for appendicitis yesterday was expected. While the nausea occasioned by the anesthetic had not entirely passed, Wolgast seemed cheerful and told his wife he expected to be out of the hospital in ten days. According to Drs. Pollard, Barton and Sherrard, the pugilist's excellent physical condition makes this probable unless some unforeseen complication sets in which will retard recovery.

Despite Wolgast's operation this afternoon's program at McCarty's arena will go on as scheduled. The only change will be the substitution of Willie Ritchie, Packey McFarland's training partner, for Wolgast. Freddie Welch agreed to this change.

INDIANS LEAD BROWN IN SECOND PERIOD

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 30.—In what was expected to be one of the best played games of the year, Brown and the Carlisle Indians met here today in the presence of a great throng.

Neither team was able to score in the first period, though the Indians once worked the ball down to Brown's third line. Brown attempted twice to work the forward pass, but the first failed and the second was intercepted by Arcasa. Points were exchanged freely in the first period, and in this game the Indians excelled, save once, when Sprackling's punt went to the Indians' twenty yard line, where Welsh fumbled and Brown recovered the ball, but could not drive it over the line.

The Indians then worked the ball down the field by straight football, aided by an end run by Thorpe that netted 25 yards. On her own three yard line, Brown's defense held like a wall, and the Indians failed to break through Brown, recovering the ball on downs just as the first period ended.

Score, first period: Brown, 0; Carlisle, 0.
Second period: Indians, 12; Brown, 6.

LEAVE BASKETS ON DOORSTEPS

The young people composing the Epworth League of the Caledonia Street Methodist church last night shone in the role of Good Samaritans, providing for the Thanksgiving dinners of more than seventy poor people on the North side.

The church parlor yesterday afternoon was a busy place. It was crowded with the ladies of the church, dividing up the provisions which had been purchased and donated by the young people of the church, and packing them into baskets.

The actual delivery of the baskets was delayed until after nightfall, in order that the recipients might be kept in ignorance of their benefactors. The delivery was accomplished in the majority of cases by leaving the baskets on the doorsteps, and retiring after knocking on the door.

The distribution of Thanksgiving dinners to the poor of the no side is a custom that has been followed for years by the Epworth League of the Caledonia Street Methodist church.

APPROPRIATE PROGRAMS

Most of the Schools Held Exercises Wednesday and Children Enjoy Vacation Today

The sufferers at Black River Falls who lost so heavily in the disastrous flood which visited that place some time ago are being remembered by the pupils of the public schools in La Crosse all of whom are taking up collections to send to the unfortunate people as a Thanksgiving offering. Although in former years the school children have given the poor food and clothing on Thanksgiving, a change was made this year and it was decided to raise a fund to send to Black River Falls.

A large sum of money will be sent by the schools as the collections in many districts are large. Although all the money was not yet collected in several of the schools, some of the districts donated as much as $20.00, the Lincoln and the Hogan schools donating $57.50, the high school giving $20.00, while others raised funds in proportion.

Appropriate exercises to observe the day were held in the public schools throughout the city, speaking and musical programs taking place in practically all the rooms of the districts. Preparations were being made for some time to make this day one to be remembered and the children all did their utmost to make the exercises a success.

Programs of exceptional merit were held in the various rooms, the children all entering into them enthusiastically with the result that the history of the day as well as the importance and object of observing it were thoroughly explained. The exercises, which it was promised, would be especially appropriate, more than fulfilled all expectations and the children doubtless derived a great deal of good therefrom.

In the districts where there are kindergartens interesting programs were held in which the smaller children took part. They gave their recitations in excellent style and entered into the spirit of the day in full style.

As it has been customary not to have a Thanksgiving day program at the high school no exercises were held there, the Christmas exercises taking the place of this as was also the case at the Franklin school.

Normal Observes Day
Thanksgiving was fittingly observed at the state normal school where an elaborate program in which many of the pupils as well as the faculty took part, being held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The children of this school gave contributions to various families in the city.

The program held at the normal school was as follows:
Song by the entire school.
Reading of the president's Thanksgiving day proclamation by a member of the faculty.

Song by the children of the first and second grades.
History of Thanksgiving day by Miss Mohr.

Song by the children of the third and fourth grades.
Dance by the children of the fifth and sixth grades.

AUTOISTS SPEED
AGAINST RECORDS

World's Famous Drivers Make Attempt to Shatter Long Distance Records at Savannah

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 30.—With the weather clear and cold and the prospects for a perfect day, Louis Wagner, in his big Fiat car, flashed across the tape at 9 o'clock today in the opening of the 498-mile grand prize race which promised to be the greatest auto event in history. At intervals of thirty seconds, fifteen other drivers were sent off in the mad dash to annihilate speed records.

Brown and Bragg continued in the lead and at the third lap Bragg was ahead of the New Yorker by one second.

Hemery failed to develop the speed expected of him in the early stages of the race. His Benz developed engine trouble and he was far behind the leaders at the fifth lap. Burman also developed engine trouble in the fifth, Hearne, in a Benz, had taken the lead in the fifth lap and Bragg was second. Mulford came up to third place and was going with the same steadiness that marked his victory on Monday.

Burman's engine trouble became worse and he was forced to drop out of the race, leaving fourteen contestants.

Hemery was forced to drop out of the race on account of engine trouble, leaving thirteen contenders.

The line-up at the start today presented the greatest collection of cars and drivers ever assembled in one race.

They got away in the following order:

Cobe, driving his Buick Hundred, was ditched and dropped out of the race in the third lap. Bragg forged into the lead and covered his first lap at the phenomenal speed of 79 miles an hour.

Hearne still held the lead at the seventh lap, with Mulford only seven seconds behind him.

In the eighth lap, Patschke took the lead from Hearne by twenty-three seconds. Wagner had climbed to third place.

TAFT DINES ON TURKEY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—With a fine, fat turkey roasting in the staterooms, President Taft dined at the White House, surrounded by his family and guests, on Thanksgiving day.

There was a large company at dinner at the White House. Though Charles and Robert Taft were unable to get away from their studies, Miss Helen had as her guests five girl friends who were her fellow students at Bryn Mawr.

THREE AMERICANS
GIVEN RED HATS

Thirteen Newly Created Princes of the Catholic Church Invested by Pope at Rome

CEREMONY ONE OF SPLENDOR

Dawn of New and Brighter Era for the Church in the New World

ROME, Nov. 30.—With pomp and splendor second only in magnificence to the investiture of a pope, thirteen of the eighteen newly created princes of the Roman Catholic church today were given their red hats in the presence of one of the most distinguished audiences that ever assembled in Rome.

Scores of Americans witnessed the ceremony and all were radiantly happy, declaring that the elevation of three of their countrymen to membership in the Sacred college indicated the dawn of a new and brighter era for the church in the new world.

Cardinals Farley, O'Connell and Falconio were the center of all eyes during the ceremony, and upon the completion of the services they were surrounded by hundreds of prominent Catholics, all eager to congratulate them upon their elevation to the Sacred college. Messages of congratulation continue to pour upon the American prelates.

All the newly created cardinals expressed themselves as well pleased over the manner in which the ceremonies had been conducted and announced that they were more determined than ever to fulfill the trust which the holy father had imposed in them.

Impressive Function

In pursuance of a century's old custom, the ceremony took place in the Hall of Beatification, one of the most magnificent apartments in the Vatican, and was attended by all the brilliances and impressiveness that characterize functions.

It was brought out, one of the most distinguished and picturesque audiences that has gathered in the Italian capital in years, including all the members of the diplomatic corps, the generals and high officials of the various religious orders in full uniform, and Swiss and Noble guards in their brilliant regalia the old papal nobility in the insignia of their various ranks and the decorations conferred on them by the pope for services to the church, a large representation of the old Roman "black aristocracy," and even a goodly sprinkling of the new "white aristocracy," all in full evening dress, despite the fact that the consistory was held in the forenoon.

Preceding the public consistory, the newly chosen cardinals met in the Sistine chapel, and there, in the presence of his holiness, the older members of the Sacred college, the superiors of the various religious orders and other dignitaries, took their oaths as princes of the Holy Roman Catholic church.

It was the arrival in the Sala regia, of those who were permitted to witness this preliminary ceremony, that conveyed to an audience which had already been waiting several hours, the first intimation that the pope's appearance for the public conferring of the red hats was to be momentarily expected. In spite of the excited positions in the world occupied by most of those in the assemblage, there was at this moment something of an undignified uprising and climbing upon benches for a first glimpse of the coming papal procession.

Gorgeous Robes Worn
The Swiss and Noble guards at once restored order, and then the procession's actual approach was heralded by presentation of arms by the guards.

Preceded by Swiss and Noble guards, "Camerlengo" of cap and sword, protopresbyter-general of the various religious orders, palatine, "bussoletti," "camerlengo" segretari, and scores upon scores of other attendants, all in the rich and gorgeous robes of their positions, there came finally the double file of the old members of the college of cardinals, even more magnificently garbed than those who had gone before them, and at last, the pope himself, carried shoulder high on the "sedes gestatoria," bestowing the papal benediction as he passed.

A burst of music from the famous Sistine choir greeted his holiness' appearance.

With the seating of the pope on the throne, the ranking of the old members of the college of cardinals about him and the grouping at the papal foot of the chaplains whose duty it was to hold the scarlet beret and gather up the cardinal's robes, the ceremony of conferring the red hats began.

Kiss St. Peter's Ring

Approaching the throne one at a time, the old cardinals first made their obeisance, kissing the St. Peter's ring which his holiness wore and each receiving in turn a salute from the pope.

Then there entered from the Sistine Chapel the new cardinals. (Continued on Page Four.)

MRS PATTERSON
FOUND NOT GUILTY

Woman who Killed Husband Freed by Jury of Murder Charge

JURORS CONGRATULATE HER

Dances from Room to Room in Jail in Thanksgiving Giving for Her Acquittal

DENVER, Col., Nov. 30.—Gertrude Gibson Patterson was freed of the charge of murder late yesterday. A crowd which could not be accommodated within the limited confines of the court room stood outside and with one voice shouted with glee when the word was passed that an acquittal had been reported.

Mrs. Patterson, a wilted, drooping creature yesterday, was her old cheerful self when she came to court to listen to the reading of the verdict.

Just the faintest gasp was emitted by the woman as the words "We, the jury, find the defendant, Gertrude Patterson, not guilty." Her two hands clasped her throat and her eyes fairly bulged.

In the court room a slight figure in black flashed indignantly eyes at the twelve men who filed out of the jury box. She was Mrs. Mary K. Patterson, the mother of the dead man, who came from Chicago to clear, if she could, the name that has been vilified by the younger woman in fighting her way to liberty.

Only six ballots were taken by the jury in arriving at an agreement.

When four of the acquitting jurors called at the jail to congratulate Mrs. Patterson, they found her dancng from room to room in the open spaces of the jail.

The Patterson case—a melodrama of surpassing, but sordid interest—will pass into history so far as Denver is concerned when Mrs. Gertrude Gibson Patterson, the beautiful central figure in the affair, leaves the city with her parents tomorrow morning.

Still radiant with joy over her acquittal yesterday of a charge of murdering her husband, the woman announced today that she would first visit Sandval, Ill., with her parents, briefly and would then hurry to Oregon to visit a former schoolmate. When she reaches Sandval on Saturday a monster banquet in her honor will be held.

Mrs. Patterson is the third woman who has been acquitted of murder in Denver within three months. All three shot their husbands down. The others were Mrs. Assunta Mollicone and Mrs. Eleanor Valentini, in the Valentine and Mollicone cases, Horace G. Benson was attorney for the defense and won both cases, in the Patterson case he was prosecutor and lost it.

"I am so happy that I just cannot tell you how I feel," said Mrs. Patterson today. "When I heard the words 'Not guilty,' I wanted to scream with joy."

"I prayed on my knees all morning long in my cell. I prayed that the jurors would believe my story; they did and I am so thankful to them."

Through with Men Forever.
"Just think, I am free and will be able to eat my Thanksgiving dinner with my people. I am going to make the best of my life. I am through with men for ever. I have had enough trouble and men have been the cause of it all."

"Mr. Patterson's mother sent me word that she would come up and shake hands with me after I was convicted, and tell me she hoped I would enjoy the penitentiary life. But she did not get a chance, thank God for that."

Mrs. Patterson said she had no idea what she would do, but declared she would not go on the stage.

She received telegrams today from all over the country congratulating her. One from New York city read as follows:
"I don't know you, but you have my best wishes, and I congratulate you on your acquittal. I have been with you ever since your trial started."

Patterson's Mother Bitter.
Mrs. Mary K. Patterson, Patterson's mother, remains bitter. "She flim-dammed the jury just as she flim-dammed poor Chick," she said. "I did not come here for revenge, but to see justice done, and this brand of justice is a disgrace to Denver. I hope that woman will never come back to Chicago. I do not want to be forced to live in the same city with her."

The elder Mrs. Patterson started for Chicago on the Rock Island at 10 o'clock last night.

CHINESE REBELS DEFEATED

PEKIN, Nov. 30.—The rebel troops were defeated today in a fierce battle at Ning Yuan, a province of Szechuan. The conflict was most deadly, hundreds being killed or wounded. The rebels fought with the greatest courage but were finally defeated because of the overwhelming numbers of their foes.

ANSWER

One—the flat, sad, sickly looking one—was baked with poor baking powder; possibly the high-priced kind—possibly the cheap, big can kind. It denotes a lack of leavening gas, or an uneven distribution of same—or both. The other—the large, light, fluffy one—was prepared with Calumet Baking Powder, and denotes the never-failing, delicious baking that always results from its use.

Calumet does not cost as much as the high price baking powder, but it is very much superior in every way—it is purer—more reliable—more healthful. Here are the reasons:

All baking powders undergo a chemical change in the process of baking. You do not take it into the stomach in the same form as it is in the can. For example: When you use Cream of Tartar Baking Powder you get Rochelle Salts in your food, because the Cream of Tartar during this reaction turns into Rochelle Salts. This, as you know, is a drug, and should be taken only under doctor's orders.

Calumet is so carefully and scientifically prepared that the neutralization of the ingredients is absolutely perfect.

That it is absolutely pure and of highest quality is proven by the fact that

CHINESE STUDENTS WORK FOR RELIEF

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 30.—The Chinese students at the university of Wisconsin, thirty-six in all, are actively interested in the relief of their countrymen in China who are afflicted by famine and flood. N. Han, a Wisconsin student, is chairman of the provisional committee of the Ai-Kweh-Hwei (Chinese National Union), which throughout America is laboring for the progress of the Chinese people and promoting a more friendly feeling between the Chinese and the people of other nations. These students are soliciting contributions for the Red Cross society in China and for famine relief.

In an appeal for this cause, the committee says: "It is very true that every one of us has his own needs like these before us now shall we not remember the immortal words of Sir Philip Sidney. 'This man's necessity is still greater than mine?"

The aims of the Chinese National Union have been endorsed by Theodore Roosevelt, John W. Foster, Harlan P. Beach, Jeremiah W. Jenks, John R. Mott, Prof. Flibert Roth, and prominent students active in the Chinese Students' alliance throughout the United States.

The funds by which several hundred Chinese students are maintained in this country have not been cut off, says Mr. Han, and even if they were, most of the students would undoubtedly be able to command sufficient income to continue here. All are displaying an intense interest just now in the political changes going on in their native land.

HOW GERMS SPREAD SKIN DISEASE

Eczema, Psoriasis and other skin troubles are caused by myriads of germs at work in the skin. Unless these germs are promptly destroyed, they rapidly multiply, gnawing their way deep into the sensitive tissue. This is what causes that awful itch, and what seemed a mere rash may grow worse and develop into a loathsome and torturing skin disease with its years of misery.

Don't take any chances! Destroy the germs at the beginning of the trouble with that soothing and cleansing wash, the D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema.

A 25c bottle will prove this to you.

We have had experience with many remedies for skin trouble but have never seen such remarkable cures as those from D. D. D. Prescription. Instant relief from the very first application.

We are so confident that D. D. D. will reach your case that it will cost you nothing if the very first full size bottle fails to make good every claim.

If you have skin trouble of any kind, we certainly advise you to drop in and investigate the merits of D. D. D. anyway. We know that D. D. D. will help you.

TAFT REPUDIATES AN ALLEGED INTERVIEW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—President Taft today repudiated an alleged interview with him, published in the Paris-Matin. In a formal statement issued at the White house, Secretary Hilles explained that "much surprise had been felt at the White house in finding that a gentleman said to be a cousin of the French military attaché, introduced by the French ambassador, should have sought, without any authorization, to circulate as an interview his recollection of casual remarks made by the president in the course of hurried conversation. The gentleman in question was one of a very large number received during a busy morning and no interview whatever was authorized."

The article in the Matin quoted the president as saying the United States was anxious for peace to be established between Italy and Turkey, and if the powers would consent, the American government would be glad to act as mediator.

In regard to the situation in China, the paper quoted Taft as saying that while the United States is naturally ready at any time to defend its interests in the orient, it wishes to remain faithful to the double principle of the maintenance of the integrity of the celestial empire and of the open door.

HOTELS MUST SUPPLY INDIVIDUAL TOWELS

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 30.—The Wisconsin state board of health has decided not to issue any permits for the use of other than individual towels in hotels. The 1911 law provided for individual towels, but empowered the state board of health to issue a permit to a hotelkeeper for other kinds of towels. The board has exercised its discretion by refusing to take advantage of this privilege.

The secretary, Mr. C. A. Haper, received a communication this week from Dr. Charles H. Sutherland of Janesville, a member of the board, inquiring about the board's position with respect to permits. The manager of the Grand hotel at Janesville had applied for a permit to use a roller towel in his hotel during the hours between meals, but not for the use of his guests.

RIOT IN REICHSRATH.

VIENNA, Nov. 30.—The lower house of the reichsrath was the scene of a violent outbreak today, when the Czech deputies refused to hear the explanations of the minister of judicial appointments. The Czechs, resenting what they termed insults by the Germans, stormed the ministerial benches, throwing ink wells and brandishing chairs. Several of the deputies were knocked down. The minister of justice escaped from the chamber and policemen were called to protect him from the mob. The session was finally declared adjourned. The interior of the lower house was badly wrecked.

HAIR REMEDY

Grew a Full Growth of Hair on a Bald Head

Here's the Proof

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

The birthright of every man, woman and child—a full, healthy head of hair. If your hair is falling, if it is full of dandruff, or if it is faded or turning gray, it is diseased and should be looked after without delay.

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY, a true Hair Tonic and Restorer, removes dandruff in a few days, stops hair falling in one week, and starts a new growth in a month.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur does not soil the skin nor injure the hair; but it is an ideal hair dressing that will restore faded and gray hair to natural color and keep the hair soft and glossy.

HOTEL REOPENS WITH A BANQUET

Half a Hundred Representative Business Men of City Attend Feast at Hotel La Crosse

GUESTS CONGRATULATE HUNT

Mayor Dengler, Sorensen, Wolfe, Doerflinger and Several Others Answer to Toasts

"We are proud of La Crosse, all of us. She is the most progressive city of her size from the source to the mouth of the Mississippi river in every respect. Mr. Hunt has shown proper citizen's pride in giving his hostelry the name of the La Crosse hotel, and shown his confidence in the ability of the establishment to prove worthy of the name. Gentlemen,
I propose to you the La Crosse Hotel, and may the fame of its excellence be spread abroad."—Response of George M. Heath to the toast, "The La Crosse Hotel."

More than fifty of the representative business and professional men of La Crosse assembled last night in the splendid new dining room of the La Crosse hotel, at a banquet given by Charles A. Hunt, the proprietor, and his son, E. D. Hunt, in honor of the formal re-opening of the house after an extended period of remodeling and re-decorating.

Long before 9 o'clock, the hour set for the beginning of the feast, the lobby was thronged with business men. Almost on the hour the door was thrown open, and to strains of music dispensed by an orchestra in one corner of the big dining room the guests grouped themselves about the tables. At the speakers' table were seated Toastmaster W. F. Wolfe, Mayor John Dengler, ex-Mayor Orl J.
Sorensen, Assemblyman J. E. Mc-Connell, George M. Heath and the host, Charles A. Hunt, E. D. Hunt, manager of the hotel, superintended the serving of the banquet.

Following the eight course dinner which was served, the guests were called to order by the toastmaster, Attorney Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe outlined briefly the history of the La Crosse hotel over a period extending from fifteen years ago up to the present time. He declared that the occasion of the assemblage last night was but in keeping with the general progressive policy evidenced by the management. After congratulating Mr. Hunt on the success of his undertakings, Mr. Wolfe introduced the first speaker of the evening, Mayor John Dengler.

The mayor made a brief congratulatory speech, declaring that there was no factor in the advance of a town of so great importance as municipal advertising. He added that nothing was such a splendid advertising agent for a city as good hotels, in that the fame of the city as a "good place to stop" is spread over the country by traveling men. He said that La Crosse was exceptionally fortunate in the class of its hoteliers.

Mr. Dengler was followed by George M. Heath of the Listman Milling company, who responded elo-quently to the toast "The La Crosse Hotel."

Declaring that the hotels of the modern day are practically the homes of a large portion of the country's population, Mr. J. E. McConnell then took the floor. He stated that in view of the fact that so many people used the hotels, the value of a first class house to a city could not be over-estimated. He stated that hotels like those of the Gateway city were an invaluable asset to a municipality.

"The hotels in La Crosse are the equal of any in the west," said ex-Mayor Sorensen, who followed Assemblyman McConnell. "Our hotels are the best without exception, of any city of our size in the state, and Mr.
McConnell and many others of the guests will bear me out in the statement that they are far superior to those of Madison. In closing, I wish to give the credit where it is due, to Mr. Hunt and his son, and I want to wish them the greatest of success."

Mr. Wolfe then called upon William Doerflinger, president of the local board of trade, who delivered a witty address appropriate to the occasion, making Mr. Wolfe, the mayor, Alderman Kroner and Mr. Sorensen the objects of many of his shafts. He ended his talk with a commendation of the pride which he declared Mr.
Hunt justly showed in his hostelry.

Mr. George Zeisler, owner of the building in which the hotel is located, was the next to be called upon. He gave an inside story of the varied fortunes of the La Crosse hotel since its foundation, and told of the unbroken success of Mr. Hunt as proprietor. He ended with wishes of the best success.

One of the features of the feast was the excellent service which was given by the employees of the hotel.
Many of the guests commented upon the clock-like precision of the arrangements, which were directly in the charge of E. D. Hunt.

The new Hotel La Crosse is a vast improvement over the old building in appointments. The lobby has been doubled in size, and new barbershop, bath rooms, etc., have been added.
The bar adjoining the lobby has also been handsomely refurnished, and is now one of the most tasteful places of its character in the city.

Following is the menu which was served:

Blue Points on Half Shell
Chicken Creme, New Orleans Celery
Queen Olives.

Baked Filets of White Fish, au point
Shirley.

Pomme Saratoga.
Rhine Wine.

time chapel, the new members of the Sacred college. Advancing to the throne, one after another kissed first the pope's feet and then his hand, and received an embrace and a kiss on either cheek by Pius. This ceremony was followed by exchanges of the "accolade" or ecclesiastical embrace, each new cardinal passing down the line of his seniors, beginning with the oldest and finishing with him of the most recent creation.

Next came the actual investiture of the candidates with the insignia of their offices, the famous red hat, which, as the new cardinals step-up to the throne in turn, was placed for a moment on the head of each by the pope's own hand.

"Receive," said the pope, with the presentation of each hat, "for the glory of Almighty God and the adornment of the holy apostolic see, this red hat, the sign of the unequalled dignity of the cardinalate, by which it is declared that even to death by the shedding of thy blood, thou shouldst show thyself intrepid for the exaltation of the blessed faith, for the peace and tranquility of the Christian people, for the increase and prosperity of the Holy Roman church. In the name the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, Amen."

With the placing of the red hat upon the head of the last of the new cardinals and a final embrace of his holiness by each member of the Sacred college, the pope took his seat again in the gestatorial chair, the procession reformed and moved from the hall, and the public ceremony was ended.

There is more Catarrh in this sec-diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with lobe a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Today's dinner costs the people of La Crosse about $11,344.50 or about thirty-five cents per person, according to estimates by wholesale dealers of the amount of provisions sold. As a whole this is less than last year as several of the articles common to the Thanksgiving dinner have decreased while but few have advanced in price.

The estimate of the amount of turkey consumed in La Crosse today is 18,000 pounds of about 1,800 turkeys. With turkey selling at twenty cents per pound this brings the cost of turkey to $3,600. Turkey is selling at from three to five cents per pound less this year than last.

Magical Effect of New Face Peeler

(Woman's National Journal)
To maintain a clear, rosy and youthful complexion, there's nothing so simple to use and yet so effective as ordinary mercurized wax, which you can get at any drug store. Just apply the wax at night as you would cold cream, only don't rub it in. In the morning wash it off with warm water.

If you've never tried it you can't imagine the magical effect of this harmless home treatment. The mercurized wax causes the old worn-out skin to come off in minute particles, a little at a time, and soon you have entirely shed the offensive cuticle. The fresh young skin now in evidence is so healthy and girlish looking, so free from any appearance of artificiality, you wonder why you had not heard of this marvelous complexion-renewing secret long ago.

CHALLENGES LOCAL SOCIALISTS TO DEBATE

The challenge of Oscar Ameringer, an Oklahoma socialist lecturer, for a public debate with any citizen of La Crosse on the "merits of Socialism," has not as yet been accepted.

In speaking of the objections generally advanced against the principles of socialism by politicians of other parties at Fjeldstad hall last night, Mr. Ameringer issued a challenge to any politician of prominence in the city to debate the question. A large number of socialists attended the lecture.

Very Realistic.
First Paris Artist—You put zat salt wid ze paint? Second Artist—Eet is for a marine picture. I make ze paint salt; zen when ze English put zair fingers to zair lips, zay say, "Eet is wonderful, almost taste ze salt on ze ocean." Zan say buy.

One Risk Sufficient.
Marks—If you had to live your life over again would you marry the same woman? Parks—You just bet I would. I know what she is, and women are too uncertain for me to experiment with another one.

The Accompaniment.
Rubinstein once declared to some one that he was descended from one of the Crusaders who accompanied Richard Coeur de Lion to Palestine. "On the piano, presumably," was the smiling response.

Painted Eyelids Black.
Ancient Egyptians, to save their eyes, decorated their eyelids with beautiful black, velvety antimony paint, which protected from glare and Egyptian sore eyes. The paint went back near the ear to end in a symbol.

Well Connected.

Didn't Tell the Whole Truth.

Japanese Shun Factory Life.
Of the Japanese factory laborer the average "work life" is short, very few being able to last longer than five years. Hence the rural population hesitates to migrate to the city when country employment is abundant.

Wedding Rings

Wedding Rings are a strong feature of our business. For a third of a century I have made Wedding Rings. That was my first work when I started learning the jewelry trade 33 years ago. I know how a wedding ring should be made to give it long life, to make the ring wear well. Every ring is hammered from either 18k or 14k solid gold, not a particle of solder being used. A soldered ring discolors and blackens the finger. Every size in stock, from the smallest to the largest. Every width; all weights. We have the correct size to fit your finger. Do not allow a ring to be cut to get a fit. Cutting weakens and spoils the ring. We engrave initials free.

Instantaneous Wrinkle Lotion Easily Made

(From Signs of the Times)
Beauty specialists, physicians and chemists long have sought some method of removing wrinkles that would not only be really effective, but that would not injure the skin in any way, nor cause any bad after-effect. A simple astringent and tonic lotion which seems to meet these requirements has at last been found.

Any woman can easily make the preparation at home, by procuring an ounce of powdered sassailla and a half pint of witch hazel at the nearest drug store, mixing the two. By bathing the face in this liquid the skin immediately becomes taut and firm, likewise the muscular tissue underneath. The effect is to push out and obliterate the wrinkles, as well as to draw in hanging skin about the cheeks, chin or neck. Enlarged pores are reduced, the skin looks more refined and the face more youthful. The lotion is wonderfully refreshing and invigorating.

PEOPLE UNITED ON THANKSGIVING

Believers in Various Creeds Band in Expression of Belief in a Supreme Being Seizing the golden opportunity offered by Thanksgiving, the people of the United States today paused temporarily in life's activities to eat their fervent thankfulness for the many blessings bestowed by a bounteous omnipotent.

In La Crosse, as elsewhere, the opportunity was not allowed to pass. The wheels of industry paused, municipal and county activities ceased and private business was postponed, while in the churches, ministers impressed upon unusually large crowds of worshippers the one fact—A Divine Power rules everything.

The day is particularly American because of its association with the early history of the country and was originally set aside for an expression of gratitude for the abundance with which the Lord has blessed the land, and for a united expression of belief in a Supreme Being.

A new spirit has entered into the occasion of late years—that of Charity, and today in La Crosse, and all over the nation, the burdens of the poor are being lightened wherever possible.

The churches, non-sectarian religious organizations, schools, aid societies and individuals here have accomplished much, while the county poor commission and some other organizations have postponed their dispensation of charity until Christmas and New Year.

The county's poor have not been neglected, however, and at the poor farm Supt. A. P. Mathewson today served a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner to the sixty inmates. Brief religious services were held in the morning.

At the insane asylum in West Salem Supt. Gullickson served a sumptuous repast. Religious services were omitted here owing to the fact that many are inmates as a result

PRACTICAL WORK

Of the Anti-Tuberculosis League
The Anti-Tuberculosis Leagues in the large cities of America are doing more practical work for the prevention of consumption than all the medicines under the sun can do toward curing it.

The Leagues are preaching the gospel of pure food, cleanliness, fresh air, exercise and personal hygiene. They are emphasizing the importance of arresting every cold and cough in its very earliest stages, thus preventing the culture of the tubercular bacillus in the mucous membranes.

One of the simplest of home remedies—pure virgin oil of pine mixed with glycerine and whiskey—is declared to be the best and quickest acting cure for colds. Care should be taken to procure only the genuine oil of pine as prepared for this purpose by the Leach Chemical Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio, which is for sale at all drug stores. Its action is immediate, and the worst colds yield to its gentle action within twenty-four hours.

MURPHY WANTS A WINTER LEAGUE

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—C. Webb Murphy, the Cub owner, butted into the insurgent class here today by advocating "reform" in the method of training minor league recruits for fast company.
Murphy advocates a winter league, the headquarters of which will be in Florida. He proposes to have an eight club league and play three games a week.
"In this way," said Murphy, "each major league club can support a winter team for recruits. The different managers can look them over at their leisure during the winter, and if they don't look good, cast them off in the spring."

HOW TO CARVE TODAY'S TURKEY

Tips to the Family Man Who Is Forced to Struggle with Toughened Fowl

BOTH HANDS SHOULD BE USED

"Kids" Should Get Wishbone and the Dark Meat Should Be Separated from Bird First

To the man who has wrestled with a Thanksgiving turkey at the cost of his guests' pleasure and his own good temper a few tips on how to master the American bird will be timely.

"Keep both hands on the bird," advises a Milwaukee chef. To the man who has suffered the humiliation of having the bird slip off the tablecloth this advice isn't necessary. He uses both hands and it is his ardent prayer that he have "mitts" of a centipede on such occasions.

In the first place a turkey should weigh from eight to ten pounds—the heavier birds are not wanted even in the larger hotels if others can be obtained. To prepare it, the giblets and neck should be removed for other uses and, if a stuffing is to be provided, and it usually is, it should be of oysters, bread, apples, chestnuts or prunes (the German fashion) and in cooking, one should look at the point where the legs join the body to determine whether the turkey is done or not. If it is roasted without stuffing, one can easily tell by pricking slightly with a fork and seeing whether the juices run clear or not. If they do, the turkey is done.

Head Nearest to Carver
And now about the carving: The turkey should be placed on the table in front of the man of the house with the head of the bird nearest the carver. The turkey should extend straight out in front of him. Then he can cut on either side if he can use the carving knife in either hand, and a good carver should be able to do so.

The knife should be rather thin bladed and keen and no more weight should be put upon it than is used in spreading butter upon a slice of bread; just let it slip lightly. Nor should the fork be pushed into the turkey; it should be used simply to protect yourself from the edge of the knife or to handle the slices of the bird as they are removed by the knife.

Now, with the bird straight in front of you, cut around one of the legs and tip it over to one side, leaving some of the skin underneath to attach it to the main body of the turkey in order to avoid such a humiliating thing as having to chase it off onto the table cloth or rescue it from the lap of one of the guests.

Next cut around the wishbone with the point of your knife and tip it down onto the platter in front of the turkey.

Strip Dark Meat First
Holding the bone at the end of the leg with the fork, slice lightly along the bone until you have reached the upper end of the second joint and then do the same thing on the other side of the bone—in this way you have stripped the dark meat from the bone and it is ready to be divided into portions with the knife. Each wing should be carved as the legs were.

Then slice off the white meat, cutting straight down on either side. The wishbone having been taken out of the way, you can cut up all of the white meat and still not leave a large block of it behind the wishbone, as is the usual way, and of such shape that it is difficult to make any use of it gracefully.

Now you are ready to serve. With a spoon, take some of the stuffing out through the neck, where the removal of the white meat has made it possible, and place it on a plate, following it with a slice of dark meat and a slice of white meat. Then place some gravy over it or some cranberries, or, if these are to be passed separately, hand the plate to the waiter.

"Pope's Nose" Comes Later
The "pope's nose" and the "turkey oysters," as the two rounded pieces of dark meat which fit into the hollows of the back of a turkey are called, are not to be served until someone asks for them, nor is the wishbone until later in the dinner, when it is usually given to one of the children or one of the younger guests.

When an expert carver has finished the carving of a turkey there should be nothing left before him but the bony carcass of the bird and no bone should have found its way to the plate of any guest. Carved as described, a turkey is far easier to carve than a chicken or anything else. After the dressing has become hard to reach through the breast the spoon can easily be driven through the thin layer of flesh left by the removal of the legs.

Host Should Do Carving
In some places the turkey comes to the table half carved and then the host has to carve the other half as the plates require replenishing. A twelve pound turkey will shrink to nine pounds with the stuffing in cooking, as a rule, or even to six pounds without any stuffing.

THANKSGIVING IN THE CHURCHES

Special Services Mark the Event in Majority of Catholic and Protestant Worship Houses

A UNIQUE CELEBRATION

Luther League of English Lutheran Church March Six Miles Early Today for Breakfast

In the feasting and merriment incident to the proper celebration of Thanksgiving day in La Crosse, the underlying object of the holiday was not lost sight of. With few exceptions the churches in the city took special notice of the day in the form of Thanksgiving services, at which the churchgoing people of the city offered up thanks before departing for their homes to demolish the great American bird.

Probably the most unique of the church celebrations of the day was that of the young people composing the Luther League of the Holy Trinity English Lutheran church. The members of the league started from the church at 6 o'clock this morning and walked out the State Road for three miles, to the farm of Theodore Kienahs. At the end of the hike they were treated to a hot breakfast at the farm. After breakfast they hiked back. The church also held a special preaching service at 10:45 in the morning, at which Rev. W. P. Christy, pastor of the church, spoke.

The Emmanuel German Evangelical Lutheran church will hold their Thanksgiving service in the evening. Rev. J. Bergholz will speak in the church at 8 o'clock.

The members of the Presbyterian church will not hold Thanksgiving services in their church today, owing to the fact that their pastor, Rev. D. C. Jones, is quarantined at his home through the serious illness with diphtheria of his daughter. They have been invited to join with the Baptists in a union meeting this afternoon, and it is probable that numbers of them will accept.

The Baptist service will be held in the church on South Sixth street this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. W. Adelbert Billings will officiate at the preaching services.

The Universalists were addressed this morning by Rev. T. B. Fisher, superintendent of the Universalist churches of the Northwest district. Mr. Fisher delivered a very able address which was appreciated by the congregation. The church choir rendered special music for the occasion.

At the Norwegian Lutheran church there were no services today. Rev. H. G. Magelssen having been called away to attend a big confirmation at De Soto. The annual Thanksgiving services of the church will therefore be held next Sunday morning.

In the Catholic churches Thanksgiving services are also in order. At the Cathedral, Father Sluiter held High Mass at 9 o'clock. There will also be a mass at the usual time at the Holy Trinity Catholic church. Father James Riestler will say mass at the latter church. At the Holy Cross church there was mass in the morning, and one of the church societies will hold a special celebration tomorrow evening.

In the Congregational church there were special services this morning at 10:30, befitting the day. Rev. Faville spoke. Prof. Harry Packman rendered some special music for the occasion.

The children of the church took part in the services at the German Evangelical Lutheran church this morning at 10 o'clock. They sang special songs which they have been preparing for some time. Rev. Julius Gamm preached the Thanksgiving day sermon.

The Thanksgiving day celebration started at the First German M. E. church yesterday evening, when the Epworth League gave a Thanksgiving social. There was also a German preaching service in the church at 10:30 this morning.

The services in the Reformed church will be held at 7:30 this evening. Rev. A. W. Lemke, pastor of the church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. A. Kern. Special music has been arranged for the occasion.

COEDS HONOR BADGER STARS

Buser, Moll and 'Germany' Presented with Presents by the Girls of the "U. of W."

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 30.—Capt. Al. Buser, quarterback Keckie Moll and Germany Schultz, the former Michigan star, who coached the Badger line during the football season just closed, are the "candy kids" in the Wisconsin football camp with the coeds of the University of Wisconsin. In appreciation of services rendered on the gridiron during the last season, the girls of the university have presented Buser with a gold watch, Keckie Moll with a diamond stickpin and Germany with a silver loving cup and Wisconsin blanket.

Inquiry among the coeds as to the names of the donors of the presents elicited that the gifts came from the girls at Chadbourn hall, but further than that the pretty football enthusiasts failed to go.

Statistics compiled show that Charlie Pollock was Wisconsin's stellar ground gainer this year despite the fact that he did not participate in the Minnesota and Chicago games. Pollock scored seven touchdowns during the season for a total of thirty-seven points. Moll was next with nineteen points and Tax Hayes third with fifteen points.

SWEDE DAHLGREN IS NOW CAPTAIN

Former Local Gridiron Hero will Lead Beloit Eleven in Battle Next Season

G. Arthur Dahlgren, better known as "Swede," has been elected captain of the 1912 Beloit College football team according to word received late yesterday.

"Swede" has played a star game at tackle for Beloit during the last two seasons and he was picked as an all-state man for this position this year. As he is conceded to be one of the best men on the team it is thought certain that he will prove to be a capable leader for next year's eleven.

Dahlgren formerly played tackle and was the star player on the high school football team for several years, he being captain in his last year here. He did the punting here and he is now doing the kicking for Beloit. That he is recognized to be an exceptionally good punter was seen when, in picking an all-state team, the critic stated that Dahlgren's work in kicking the pigskin would alone entitle him to a position.

JEFFERSON HIGH TO PLAY LOCALS

The curtain on the 1911 football season will be rung down at League Park this afternoon, when the thirty eleven from Jefferson plays the La Crosse team in their final game. Because of their unusually successful season, with only one defeat scored against them, the locals are favorites in the betting.

LAST GAMES OF SEASON TODAY

WEST
St. Louis vs. Syracuse, at St. Louis.
Case vs. Western Reserve at Cleveland.
Michigan Aggies vs. Wabash, at Lansing.
Cincinnati vs. Ohio State, at Cincinnati.
EAST
Pennsylvania vs. Cornell, at Philadelphia.

Penn State vs. Pittsburg, at Pittsburg.

DOOR CLOSES ON FOOTBALL SEASON

Today's Battles will Close Gridiron History of 1911; Many Play Last Game

With most of the big games played and the cleanup coming today, football fans in the country will not have a very extensive gridiron menu for Turkey day.

The big games are sprinkled all over the country and they are not very numerous. In the west interest centers in two games, the Notre Dame-Marquette struggle, and the St. Louis-Syracuse contest in St. Louis. The Mound city eleven is a strong one and ought to prove a worthy foe for the New York starters. The Orange and Black have made an enviable record for the season, having held Michigan to a tie and is the only team in the country which is credited with a win over the Carlisle Indians. On dope the easterners should take the measure of the westerners.

The big game in the east is the Cornell-Pennsylvania struggle, and to those interested in eastern football it is the biggest contest of the country. By virtue of the 1911 records, Cornell is a favorite. This is a fighting game, but in the scores of past battles between the two elevens, it was a series of disasters for the New York state team. Since 1893, Cornell has won but a single game and held Pennsy to a tie. This year they expect to get a little revenge for the many drubbings administered.

At the rate the Pennsylvanians have been going, and the hoodoo which seems to hang over Cornell, it is possible that the dope will again be upset.

In the state interest centers in two high school games, East Green Bay vs. West Green Bay and the Chippewa Falls-Oshkosh games. These will go a long way toward clearing up the championship, for one game will either make or break contenders who expect to meet the winner of the Fort Atkinson-West Green Bay game Saturday.

The western list of games is not startling and about the only other game of any great interest is the contest between the Michigan Aggies and Wabash at Lansing, Mich.

The Carlisle Indians will wind up their season this afternoon when they clash with Brown in Providence. They were after a clean slate this season, but fell down against Syracuse. They have a chance of beating Brown for comparative scores show them to be superior.

Pennsylvania State and Pittsburg will battle for the championship of Pennsylvania and Georgetown will close a successful season against Lehigh, the team that tied Princeton. The championship game of the south takes place at Nashville, when Vanderbilt, who made a good showing this season, meets the university of the South.

M'FARLAND MEETS MURPHY TODAY

Chicago and Gotham Lightweights Meet in San Francisco Today

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 30.—Despite the fact that the odds are overwhelmingly in favor of McFarland, a tremendous crowd is expected to witness the fight in Coffroth's arena this afternoon between Packey McFarland of Chicago and Harlem Tommy Murphy of New York. Murphy refuses to concede that the Chicago lad has anything on him and promises to spring a surprise or two before the scheduled twenty rounds are over.

Both lads looked fit, having trained conscientiously for several weeks. McFarland must make 135 pounds an hour before the battle starts—a difficult feat for him to accomplish—but he is confident to being able to do so. He says he intends to force the battle from the outset.

McFarland today expressed regret over Ad Wolgast's illness.

"I had intended to accept his latest defy," he said, "and try to arrange a fight for New Year's day, but now, of course, that's all off. I am sorry for him and hope he will recover quickly."

The odds this morning were ten to four on McFarland for this afternoon's go. The battle is scheduled to start at 1:30 p. m.

PARENTS OPPOSED TO VACCINATION ORDER

SUPERIOR, Wis., Nov. 30.—Considerable opposition has been aroused by the board of education's vaccination order, which provides that no pupil may attend school after Monday of next week who does not present a certificate from a physician showing that he or she has been successfully vaccinated. Some parents have stated that rather than allow their children to be vaccinated they will keep them out of school.

The high school students who had thought that the order applied only to the grade pupils, were informed that they were also included. It is also possible that the normal authorities will issue a vaccination order.

Money always talks loudest just before election.

My Thanksgiving Proclamation

I have much to be thankful for in this year 1911.

I thank the public whose favor has enabled me to do the biggest jewelry business between two Thanksgiving days since my first coming to La Crosse; and I accept this favor as an obligation on me to still further improve my stock and my service in every way possible.

Especially do I thank the many who, after finding my goods, my prices and my ways satisfactory, have spoken their words of approval to friends and so have increased the number of my customers.

I thank my faithful helpers in the store for their loyalty, zeal and efficiency.

I thank you for accepting my intentions as the apology for occasional mistakes; for overlooking this and that; for your confidence in my earnest desire to please you.

Finally, I thank my critics for calling attention to my faults, for now I may mend the worst of them and thus more efficiently serve you, and you, and you.

NOVELTY TO BE FEATURE OF BILL

Edwin Keough and Helen Nelson will feature the next bill at the Majestic with a novelty that is billed as a scenic and dramatic sensation. The act comes with the highest recommendation from theaters in the larger cities, and Manager Koppelberger feels confident that it will be a "sure-fire" hit here.

Lonzo Cox, silhouette artist, is a funny man with an original line of stuff that never fails to make a hit with everyone. The feature of his act is a series of pictures in silhouette, entitled "Faces You See in the Moon."

Mr. Swor, of the Swor and Westbrock singing and dancing team, which will also appear, is a brother of the Swor and Mack, who made a soft spot for themselves in the heart of Majestic patrons at their last appearance here.

The bill will also present Walter Rogers, a comedian of class, who keeps audiences in tears the full six minutes of his act.

And Carlotta will remain the balance of the week, with her wonderful neck-risking loop-the-loop bicycle act.

NOTRE DAME MEETS MARQUETTE

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—With the western conference football season over, gridiron sport centers tomorrow in the game at Milwaukee today between Notre Dame and Marquette, two teams which rank high in western football. They are well matched and followers look for a good game.

At Chicago De Paul meets St. Vincent, and St. Louis meets Syracuse at St. Louis.
